Redfield® Raider™ 600 Digital Laser Rangefinder

ABOUT

When a big buck steps into the clearing you've been scouting for months, don't rely on a guesstimate. Shoot with confidence; knowing the Raider™ 600 will put you right on the money. Tested and monitored by the experts at Redfield, the lightweight and compact Raider 600 uses a precision laser for fast, accurate ranges to your trophy. Simply press and release the button for a single reading in yards, or press and hold the button for continuous distance updates as your trophy approaches. Measuring only 3.7 inches in length, and weighing a mere 5 ounces, the Raider's efficient 3-channel design keeps bulk to a bare minimum, while the CR-2 battery ensures maximum battery life. Complete with a field-ready case and covered by the Redfield Electronics Warranty, the Raider is a no-nonsense rangefinder for no-nonsense hunters.
